It's time, once again to remember the beautiful message of Jesus—the Son of Man and the Son of God. He became one of us in order to lay down His life for us, sacrificing Himself on a cruel cross. His love for us ignites new life in us giving us hope to face all that life has in store. Come, bring your family and your friends and let's celebrate EASTER!

"Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain."
-1 Cor. 15:28

We're almost there!

We're in the final stretch of our 3-year campaign to update our church facility and parking lot. The campaign started as we celebrated our 20th anniversary of ministry and will conclude on our 20th year in our church building! We still have some things to finish and we are close to the $70,000 goal, too! Thank you for your love and support for this ministry!
