The Winds Of March

March wind, wild wind, blow this day.
Whirl the winter snow away. Dry the ditches and the hollows-in tracks where April follows. Clear a path for her advance.
Teach the daffodils to dance. Through your ravings harsh and strong-thruses thread a golden song. Cleanse the air, Make fresh the earth-for the season of rebirth.

Wind of heaven, searching, keen. Sweep the world and make it clean. Blow away the old dissensions-grievances and bad intentions. Godless dogmas, pagan creeds. Ugly words and ugly deeds. Scatter them beneath your wings. Blow away all evil things-So that man from strife may cease-and enjoy the fruits of peace.

State of the Church

March 9th, 2025

We are blessed of our Lord as we ended 2024 in good shape. Our By-Laws require us to give an account of the previous year's statistics. This includes all income, expenses and status of all accounts (Missions, Youth, etc.) plus the Needy Fund and a membership update. Our Preschool and Academy will have an update for 2024 and hopefully, some news about our 2025/26 school year.

GOOD NEWS/BAD NEWS

Our new roof is paid for [EARLY] but we have hanging over us the replacement of our entire heating and air conditioning units—about $110,000.
Those who made commitments on the roof can now stop!

We will start a campaign for the HVAC once we begin installation and know the actual cost. Thank You for your generosity and faithfulness!
